

Camp Tikvah 2010

Camp Tikvah is a great summer experience offered to children entering 1st Grade through 5th Grade

Camp Tikvah dates:

Session 1: June 28-July 9

Session 2: July 12-July 23 (Camp Shabbat on the 23rd)

What does a day at Camp Tikvah look like?

- Come to camp at 9:00 and enjoy some free choice time
- Morning service
- Swimming lessons
- Lunch
- Afternoon song session
- Small group activities
- Whole-Camp Activities

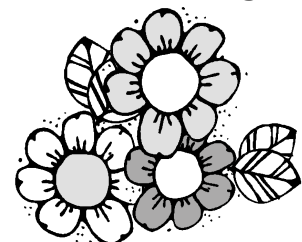

(Depending on the day we may be learning about our theme, playing games, playing sports, Jewish dancing, taking field trips, doing mitzvahs, playing at the park, etc.)

- Wrap up our day around 3:00, head home, and get excited for tomorrow

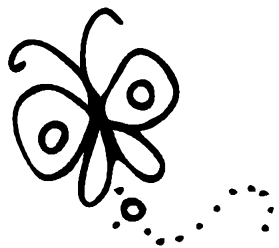

More Camp Tikvah information:

- Swim lessons will be at Seascap in Hoffman Estates on Monday-Thursday. Swim lessons will be taught by the lifeguard staff at Seascap.
- We will stay at Seascap once every week to enjoy a picnic lunch and free swim.
- We will take a field trip once a week. Field trips may include: bowling, mini-golfing, water parks, etc.
- The kids will bring their own lunch to camp everyday.
- We will have a song session everyday.

- We will have a Camp Tikvah Friday night Shabbat service to wrap up our summer (July 23rd). Campers who attend all 4 weeks AND campers who only attend one of the sessions are invited to participate.

Cost:

Registration fee of $50.00 per camper

For a 2 week session only:

$390.00 (for temple members)

$490.00 (for non-temple members)

For the full 4 weeks:

$510.00 (for temple members)

$610.00 (for non-temple members)

Call Amy Goldstein with any questions: 847-363-9087 or ask in the temple office 847-885-4545. You can e-mail Amy at alg23@comcast.net with any questions, too. Registration forms are available at the temple.

I hope to see you there!
